

Know Your Rights:

- You have the right to remain silent, refuse entry to your home without a judicial search warrant, and request an attorney if detained

Be Prepared:

- Create a family safety plan- Decide who will care for children and handle finances if someone is detained.
- Consult an immigration attorney: Explore your legal options for immigration status
- Register with your Consulate
- Memorize key information: Family member's phone number, Alien Registration number (if you have one), attorney's phone number
- Build your community: Join a faith based or community organizations for support and resources.
