

Bullet Points One-Pager Suggestions for staff to offer clients:

- Know Your Rights: You have the right to remain silent, refuse entry to your home without a judicial search warrant, and request an attorney if detained
- Create a family safety plan- Decide who will care will children and handle finances if someone is detained
- Consult an immigration attorney: Explore your legal options for immigration status
- Register with your Consulate
- Memorize key information: Family member's phone number, Alian Registration number (if you have one), attorney's phone number
- Build your community: Join a faith based or community organizations for support and resources.